

founder and director of (SOCIETY)

Skill development training camp organised in Government College

Instructor detailing the college students about skill development.

DURG, Sept 23

AN EMPLOYMENT-BASED skill development training camp was organised at Dr Manrakhanlal Sahu Government College, Jamul.

Instructor Ashfaq Khan gave detailed information regarding financial literacy and interview preparation. All educated unemployed in the age group of 18 to 30 years who are 8th, 10th, 12th pass or graduate will be provided free training in the field of Electrical, Refrigeration, Central Air Condition, Sailing Section, Office Administration. This training will be given at Durg, skill development center of the Government of Chhattisgarh.

Also under Pradhan Mantri Mudra Yojana, how to get loan without a guarantor for self-employment, how to avoid cyber fraud, what is the CIBIL score, etc. were discussed.

For the preparation of the interview, personal hygiene, body language, how should be the gestures during the conversation, common questions asked in the interview were discussed. More than 100 educated unemployed took advantage of this programme.

The instructor clarified the doubts of the students appropriately. The Principal described this programme as a good effort to shape the future of the youth. This programme was organised under the joint aegis of ICICI Foundation and Young India. On this occasion a large number of students including Municipal President Ishwar Thakur and Ward Councilors and Principal of the college Dr P D Sonkar and college professors were present.